Dear Sir,

I was informed by Quaritch that you have bought a medieval fragment (part of a leaf) of the Decretum of Burchard of Worms (Quaritch, Bookhands of the Middle Ages Part III, Catalogue 1088 [1988] p. 80 No. 78). I am interested in this fragment for scholarly reasons and should like to have a microfilm, a photocopy (more or less in the original size) or a digital reproduction of the fragment. I intend to use that material in a paleographical research project that I am now engaged in.

I would be happy to pay the costs of filming and shipment on receipt or in advance.

Sincerely

agilare in sum p[er]cipit.
