

The University of Chicago

Classical Philology

EDITORIAL OFFICE

Oct. 13. '37.

My dear Dr. Bischoff:-

I was glad to hear from you, Miss Kibbe had told me long ago how kind and helpful you had been to her. I have often regretted that Miss Boyer had not been fortunate enough to know you and talk over her problems with you. I know she would have profited from your knowledge of German literature & MSS.

I shall be glad to relinquish Virgilis to you. It was too difficult a text to assign to one of my students. My own studies on V. have not gone so far that I am distressed at the loss of time or effort in giving it up. In any case I should not have been able to devote much time to it in the immediate future. I wish you the best of luck in your attempt to solve the difficult