

NEWPARK HOTEL

Newpark Hotel is an ideal first stop after landing at Dublin (73 miles), Dun Laoghaire (86 miles) and Rosslare (63 miles). Set in spacious landscaped and wooded grounds, one or two days in Newpark will set the mood for a wonderful holiday.

Special arrangements for fishing over a 12 mile stretch; for shooting on 6,000 acres, and golfing at the nearby 18-hole golf course.

KILKENNY

Kilkenny City — Ireland's historic medieval city, often referred to as 'the Florence of Ireland'. Places of interest to see — the Irish National Design Centre and workshops; Rothe House — Kilkenny's own Museum; St. Canice's Cathedral with its leaning tower; Ormonde Castle, soon to house an art gallery — all these historic buildings are open to our guests.

Kilkenny and environs.

Hunting in County Kilkenny is among the best in Ireland. The Kilkenny Hounds are kennelled at Mount Juliet and hunt the eastern part of the county.

Inistioge is one of Ireland's renowned beauty spots.

Kilkenny Beer Festival, held late May early June is a gay and elaborate festival of music and Irish merriment.

Also available nearby: Hunting, Tennis and Pony riding. Touring of the local countryside, including Inistioge, the Caves, the rivers — by arrangement at the reception desk.

You'll enjoy Irish cooking at its very best, and a number of international dishes have been included in the menu for added variety. Where better to have an aperitif than the Newpark's "Castle" bar.

The modern Function room is set apart from the bedroom block but enjoys all the amenities of the hotel. Ideal for conventions, conferences, wedding receptions, dinner dances. Please ask the Banqueting Manager for further particulars.
