

Dear Laura,

A few days ago I received your letter with the saddest news.

On the evening of Oct 17 you must have lived ^{had} the most cruel shock of your life. We had not yet heard of the accident and was ^{happy} ~~may~~ ^{wife} and I are still under the impression

thinking that Roger ^{had} ~~found~~ this terrible and premature end.

^{his superb scholarship}
I loved ^{him} and admired ^{him} ~~him~~ ~~just too~~
He helped me a great deal in England

^{generosity}
^{Home and I}
Both of us shall never forget the most interesting excursions

into the history of England since Stonehenge

~~His superb scholarship~~
