My dear Bernhard

I found this envelope on Roger's desk, which makes me think that he was on the point of writing to you, when he died on Oct-17 - I should have written before with this sad news, but I have not yet found his address book -

What happened was this - He has lately returned to a piece of work in the Hereford Cathedral Library - Translating & copying the glosses in the biblical manuscripts - He used to spend the day there, & drive back to his home in the evening. This was just
