

Thanks should also go to Professor Timothy Reuter (Monumenta Germaniae Historica, Munich and University of Southampton) for his translation of my preface into English and the troubles he has taken with the 'Making of this Book', and to Dr. Claudia Märkl (Monumenta Germaniae Historica, Munich) who kindly helped me with the correction of the proofs. Professor Kristeller has kept constantly in touch with the enterprise during its various stages, and contributed numerous additions and suggestions for changes; to him above all I owe many thanks for his great patience and the trouble that he has taken.

Finally I would like to say that readers' recommendations with regard to additions or corrections will be welcome.

Munich

June - September 1993