

Itinerar König Heinrichs (VII.)
Phase 6: 1232 - 1235

Entwurf und Ausführung: Th. Vogtherr

The map illustrates the travel routes of King Heinrich VII. during Phase 6 (1232-1235). The routes are depicted as a network of lines connecting various cities across Central Europe. Key locations include Boppard, Mainz, Frankfurt, Würzburg, Nürnberg, Regensburg, and Eger. The map also shows the Rhine, Danube, and other major rivers, as well as the borders of the Holy Roman Empire and the Kingdom of Hungary.
