

in this codex were substantially drawn from sources compiled in an early French law school. However, the compilation also contains a new textual witness of the so-called Collectio Augustana. As a handy short version of the more voluminous collections, this compilation was probably used in the context of episcopal jurisdiction in the archdiocese of Salzburg.