

CARLSRUHE AUG. CIII (contd.).

¶ Written in a Germanic ~~script~~ in the area of the Lake of Constance, probably in the Reichenau; the Notitia Galliarum is copied after the seventh century half-uncial MS. Cologne 212. The first volume to this MS. is St. Paul in Carinthia XXV. a.6. On fol. 1 is the fifteenth-century librarian's entry: lib' mon' augie maioris'.
