

MS.25.

I have included MS.25 because I am not sure whether it is Eastern France or Germany. It is the earliest known copy of the Homiliary. Richard Hunt and I have wondered whether the fourteenth century foliation on the verso would be a clue as to provenance.

For the sigls used in the notes see the sheet attached to MS. 49.