

1. fols.1-6^v Kalendar

The following feasts associated with the Cistercian order are marked with twelve lessons: William of Bourges (Jan. 10), Robert of Molesmes (Apr. 29), Peter of Tarentaise (May 8), Malachy (Nov. 5), and Edmund archbishop of Canterbury (Nov. 16). Feast of S. Bernard (Aug. 20) in red but without grading ~~not marked~~. Nativity of S. Benedict (Mar. 22) in red but without grading, translation (July 11) with twelve lessons.

'Commemoratio parentum nostrorum' (Nov. 20), cf. Nomasticon Cisterciense, ed. Sejalon (Solesmes, 1892), p.188. 'Luodevici regis francie, due misse' added on day after S. Bartholomew (Aug. 25). cf. J. Canivez, Statuta Capit. Gen. Ord. Cisterciensis (1933), 1298 (5).

~~Cesarius & Benignus, and Felicity appear in the sanctoral but not in the kalendar.~~

Elizabeth Lantgraue (Elizabeth of Thuringia) (Nov 19)

2. fols.7-8 Exorcismus salis. Exorciso te creatura salis  tuam poscentibus ubique adesse dignetur. Per do. eiusdem. Oratio post aspersionem aque. Dominus vobiscum. Oremus. Exaudi nos domine sancte pater omnipotens eterne deus et mittere  in hoc habitaculo. Per do.

Blessing of holy water and prayer after sprinkling.

cf. A. Franz, Die kirchlichen Benediktionen im Mittelalter (Freiburg i.Br., 1909) i, 14^b-6

3. fol.8^v (i) In assumptione beate marie virginis Benedicchio herbarum. Adiutorium nostrum. oremus. Omnipotens sempiterne deus qui celum et terram  quam anime sanitatem. Tunc aspergantur herbe cum aqua benedicta. (ii) Benedicchio ad quodcumque uolueris. Benedic domine creaturam istam  audiui tutelam percipiant. Per.

Blessing of herbs on the feast of the Assumption and blessing of what you will (added s.xiv²)