a few hymns and collects Foll. 109 ( fol. 61, originally blank, contains ~~the office for~~
and a magic formula: Carmen ad Draumculum
~~the feast of St. Nicholas, saec. XII-XII~~); 277 x 175 mm. < ca.
235 x 135 mm. > in 26 long lines. Ruling on the flesh-side, four bifolia at a time with the direct impression on the outer or inner bifolium. Single bounding lines. Pricking either on the bounding line or <sup>in the margin or</sup> a little inside the text guided the ruling.
Gatherings of eights, with flesh-side outside, signed by Roman numerals in the centre of the lower margin of the last page.
Running titles on many openings, in the script of the text.
Colophons and titles in alternate lines of hollow mixed capitals and black or red uncial or half-uncial, occasionally in green uncial ( fol. 16). Punctuation : a medial or high point used <sup>or a comma occur also</sup> for main and occasionally lesser pauses; <sup>much is</sup> ~~used~~ <sup>used</sup> for main pause.
~~in the first few pages; other signs are~~ added. Omissions marked by signes de renvoi; ~~h~~ in the margin but no corresponding sign in the text on fol. 46. Abbreviations include b<sub>i</sub>, b<sub>2</sub>, b<sub>3</sub> = bus;
q<sub>i</sub>, q<sub>2</sub>, q<sub>3</sub>, q<sub>4</sub> = que; e and e<sub>2</sub> = est; m<sub>+</sub> = mus; n<sub>o</sub> ( 28, 35 ) = nostro;
n<sub>f</sub> = nus; p, p<sub>2</sub> = per, pro; quo = quoniam; t<sub>2</sub>, t<sub>3</sub> ( occasionally corrected into t<sub>2</sub> ) = ter, tur. Omitted n is marked by a horizontal stroke above the vowel ( foll. 47-53 use the almost vertical flourish), omitted n by a sort of suprascript z. Spelling : ~~besides~~ <sup>often</sup> the frequent confusion of e and i, o and u, d and t; ei for ti
~~is often found~~. A few initials with delicate plait and fancy leaf

Cher Monsieur le Professeur,

Je viens de recevoir votre carte du 15, transmise de Maredsous. Je suis bien sensible à vos attentions. Je me félicite, tout en vous en faisant mon compliment, du résultat si précieux auquel vous êtes parvenu. Je prends bonne note de votre indication. J'ai présentement sous les yeux le ms. Paris Bst-lat. 13376, assigné lui-même au IX<sup>e</sup> s. et qui provient de Saint-Germain de Jülich. Il renferme la même collection de sermons de S. Aug. que le ms. de Darmstadt. Or il est intéressant de remarquer ~~que~~ que les deux mss. procèdent d'un même modèle, où la collection était profondément bouleversée, sans doute à la suite d'intervention de callist.

En mon absence et arrivé à Maredsous le microfilm des mss. de Newbury, que m'a envoyé M. A. C. Cunningham, en me priant de vous le transmettre. Je ne manquerai pas de le faire, dès mon retour à Maredsous, qui ne tardera guère.
